

August 3, 2010

Volume 2, Issue 3

Paul survives a bit by a poisonous snake.

(Acts 28:1-10)

Lead Story Headline

GOD'S WORD:

At Malta, Paul amazes the native people by surviving a snakebite, and they believe he is a god. As he heals many sick people, they will learn that his power comes from the one true God, not from Paul himself. By God's miraculous power in Christ, He rescues His people from sin, death and ignorance.

Prayer: Thank you, Holy Spirit, for showing us the true God! Keep our faith in Him, that we may always know His forgiveness and life. Amen

(from The Lutheran Study Bible)

AT HOME:

Have your children talked about Sailor Jiffy. Jiffy visits us each day in a skit during our Sing and Play Splash Opening. She helps us introduce our bible point of the day as we explore God's Word and learn of His amazing promises and Jesus' love for all of us.

REACHING NEAR AND FAR THROUGH CHRIST:

The children are invited to bring an offering that will be used to provide local children with much needed school supplies. Wednesday is for wide-ruled notebooks.

Our monetary offering will be donated to two international missions in Haiti.

Friends of Haiti (friendsofhaiti-gb.com) is a local nonprofit organization that seeks to provide medical and dental services to improve the health, education and economic development of Haiti

The second is supporting a Lutheran Church Missouri Synod missionary who seeks to help the people of Haiti know Jesus Christ.

Offerings from the kids for the second night totaled $17.44. This brings out grand total to $201.04.

Praise be to God that we are continuing to our goal of $350!

Check out the lighthouse that illustrates just how far Christ has led us in our offerings.

Thank you again for bring your child to VBS here at Hope.

We know they leave with Jesus Christ in their hearts!

Bible Point:

God's Word is surprising.

Bible Verse:

"Open my eyes to see the wonderful truths in your instructions." – Psalm 119:18

Bible Story:

Acts 28:1-10 – Paul survives a bite by a poisonous snake.

Dates to Remember:

- Thursday, August 5 beginning at 8:10pm is our VBS closing and ice cream social.
- Sunday, September 12 is our Sunday School Rally Day. Join us for Sunday School at 9am, Divine Service at 10:30am and then lunch and a carnival at 11:30am.

Secondary Story Headline

Everyone is invited to our closing program on Thursday, August 5 starting at 8:10 in the sanctuary. This will be followed by an ice cream social where a free will offering for our mission projects will be taken.

We have received generous donations for our ice cream social for all of the toppings. Thank you to the James Family. If you would like to make a financial donation to help with the cost of ice cream there is a jar located on the registration table. Thank you.

You are invited to worship on Sunday, September 12 at 10:30am. We will be singing many of our VBS songs. Following the service, there will be a Carnival with games and a cookout provided by Hope Lutheran Youth.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find “filler” articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you're finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

“To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here.”

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find “filler” articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you're finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

“To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here.”

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

Toshiba

Primary Business Address
Your Address Line 2
Your Address Line 3
Your Address Line 4

Phone: 555-555-5555
Fax: 555-555-5555
E-mail: someone@example.com

We're on the Web!
example.com

Your business tag line here.

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.

Caption describing picture or graphic.